

RM-10867 is by far the best proposal for improving the licensing of the Amateur radio services. While I feel the code requirement should be dropped for all license classes. In days gone by-by morse code was a nessecary operating skill. Today it is only one of the various operating modes. We have not required licenses to be tested on other operating modes. Drop the code.